

Valeria Termini

Commissioner of the Italian Regulatory Authority for Electricity Gas and Water (since 2011);

Vice-President of the Council of European Energy Regulators–CEER (since 2013);

Vice-President of the Association of Mediterranean Energy Regulators - MEDREG (since 2016).

Full Professor of Economics (since 1995), she currently holds the chair of Economics and Governance of the Energy Markets at the University of Roma Tre.

Positions held in the field of energy:

- Member of the Board of Regulators of the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators-ACER (2011-2015);
- Head the Italian delegation for Energy and Climate Change at G8, United Nations and OECD and served as Personal Representative of the Prime Minister of Italy Romano Prodi in the Major Economies Meetings (MEM) (2006-2008);
- Deputy Chairperson of the Italian Electricity Market (GME) at the time of its institution by the Italian Government to launch the wholesale electricity market (2000-2003);
- She has served as President and member of several Governmental Commissions of experts in the field of regulation, energy and climate change, liberalization of public utilities, public sector reform.

Academic positions:

- President of the International Association of Schools and Institutes of Administration (IASIA 2010-2013);
- Member of the United Nations Committee of Experts on Public Administration (CEPA 2010-2013);
- Member of the Advisory Board of the School of Business Management (SDA) at Bocconi;
- Dean of the Italian National School of Government - SSPA (2006-2009) and Vice President for Europe of the International Association of Schools and Institutes of Administration (IASIA).
- Senior Fellow of the LUISS School of European Political Economy (since 2013)

She is the author of several articles and publications regarding energy policy, electricity futures markets, European institutions in the field of energy and climate change, regulation of public utilities and liberalization of electricity markets.

Studies

She studied Economics at Bocconi University (Italy) and Cambridge University (UK)