

Valeria Termini

Commissioner of the Italian Regulatory Authority for Electricity and Gas (February 2011).
Member of the Board of Regulators of the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators (ACER).
Full Professor of Economics (since 1995), she was teaching Economics and governance of the energy markets and European monetary economics at the University of Roma Tre, Faculty of Economics.

Positions held in the field of energy:

- She led the Italian delegation for Energy and Climate Change at G8, United Nations and OECD; she served as President of the Italian Cabinet Committee on energy and climate change and Personal Representative of the Prime Minister of Italy in the Major Economies Meetings (MEM) (2007-2008)
- Deputy Chairperson of the Italian Electricity Market (GME) since its set up by the Italian government to launch the wholesale electricity market in Italy (2000-2003).
- Deputy Chair person of ACEA (1994-97), the city of Rome water and electricity company.
- President and member of several government Commissions of experts in the field of regulation, energy and climate change, liberalization, privatization of public utilities, including: President of government Commissions at the Court of Auditors (1999-2001) and member of the Treasury Commission in charge of drafting the law on privatisations (1996-98) and the reform of senior civil servant recruitment and training (2006-2007).

Academic positions:

- President of the International Association of Schools and Institutes of Administration (IASIA)
- Member of the United Nations Committee of Experts on Public Administration (CEPA).
- Member of the advisory board of the School of Business Management (in Italian, SDA) at Bocconi University.
- Member of the Scientific Committee of the Master on "Antitrust and regulation of public services" at the University of Rome Tor Vergata.

She was:

- Dean of the Italian National School of Government - SSPA (2006-2009).
- Vice President for Europe of the International Association of Schools and Institutes of Administration (IASIA)

Academic-activities:

Full Professor of Economics since 1995, she has taught Economics of regulation, Economics, International economics, Monetary economics in several Universities in Italy, including: University of Roma Tor Vergata, University of Roma La Sapienza, University of Cassino; University of Brescia, University of Trieste and abroad: Cambridge University (UK), University College of London and Columbia University, New York.

She is the author of several articles and publications regarding energy policy, electricity futures markets, European institutions in the field of energy and climate change, regulation of public utilities and liberalization of electricity markets.

Studies

She studied Economics at Bocconi University (Milano - Italy) and Cambridge University (UK).