

GUIDO PIER PAOLO BORTONI

President of the Italian Regulatory Authority for Electricity Gas and Water since February 2011.

Born in Pavia on 15 December 1960. Married with three children. Took a degree with honours in electrical engineering at the Pavia University and a postgraduate Master's Degree in Business Management at the MIP-Milan Polytechnic.

Member of the Board of Regulators of the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators- ACER since September 2015.

Member of the Administrative Board of the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators- ACER (2009-August 2015). Member of several national and international bodies and workgroups (ERGEG, CIGRE, CEI, AEE), 2012-2013 vice-president of CEER.

From January 2009 to January 2011: Chief Executive at the Energy Department of the Italian Ministry for Economic Development; Member of the Board of Directors of RSE S.p.A. – a company active in the research on the energy system, President of the Committee for the emergency in the natural gas sector; Member of the Technical Committee on Greenhouse Gas Emissions (CTE). Member of the Italian-French workgroup on the development of the civil nuclear industry; Member of the Italian-US workgroup on the Clean Energy Ministerial.

From 1998 to 2008, served at the Italian Electricity and Gas Regulatory Authority. In 2007 he was appointed Central Manager, Head of the Markets Department (Electricity and Natural Gas).

From 1987 to 1998 he served at CESI (the Italian Electrotechnical Centre) of the Enel group and offered his counselling service and collaboration abroad, and especially in the USA and France for a two-year period.

He is the author of numerous scientific international and Italian publications and has held lectures in postgraduate courses on energy and regulatory issues.